Kind attention :- PwD category students ,

It was resolved in the examination committee meeting that following provisions will be made for PwD category students from exam MJ 2019

I) Regarding Internal Marks :-

a) If Continuous Assessment (CA) marks of such students are equal or more than 40 % of maximum CA marks only then these marks will be considered for total evaluation of that course .

(i. e. 20 marks of CA out of 50 for KJSCE 2018 scheme and 16 marks of CA out of 40 for KJSCE 2014 scheme)

b) If CA marks of such students are less than 40 % of maximum CA marks , then these marks will not be considered for total evaluation . In this situation, End Semester examination (ESE) marks out of 100 will be considered for total evaluation with 40 % passing. There will not be scaling down of ESE marks.

c) Those students who have applied for retest to improve CA marks, which will be held before ESE, can give re-test as an additional attempt.

However it is not mandetory to appear for retest as per the clause 1 (b) as mentioned above.

II) College refers the GR with ref no ~~302~~ dated 4 March 2017 for the examination related provisions for PwD students .

With reference to the said GR , college is proposing to extend the following provisions:-

1) Students having Specific Learning Disability / Visually Impairment, who find difficulties in writing the ESE paper, can give the answers orally during end semester examination for that particular theory course. The answers will be recorded, then will be converted to text file and evaluated. Separate seating arrangement will be made for such type of examination.

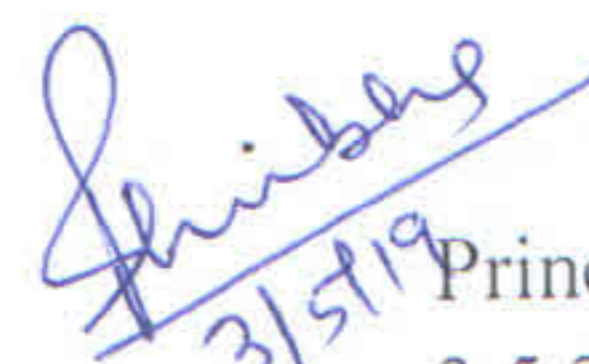

To avail this provision, Students have to apply in the exam cell in advance.

Students need to get acquainted for conduction of exam in this way, by giving a trial.

2) Students having Specific Learning Disability / Visually Impairment, who find difficulties in writing the answers during ESE , can type the answers on PC if they are able to do. Students have to apply in the Exam cell for the same, 5 working days before the start of examination.

3) Permission of writer can be given during the end semester exam. For this students will have to apply in the exam cell, 5 working days before the start of examination . Student have to arrange the writer himself and have to get the approval in advance. By checking the requirement and other details of writer, Principal may approve the application.

In case, if any student requires more clarification on the above, he can contact Exam cell.
